

Psychologist psychotherapist, graduated at University of Padua (cum laude) and specializing in psychotherapy at Specialization School in Cognitive-Interactive Psychotherapy (cum laude).

From 01/01/2013 clinician and researcher at Oncological Surgery Unit I.O.V.-I.R.C.C.S. : psychological intervention to neoplastic patients before and after surgery, psychoeducational support to caregivers. Organization, management and monitoring of specific trials about HRQoL in patients undergoing esophagectomy for cancer and in patients undergoing positioning of Totally Implantable Venous Access Devices.

From 2007 collaborator at the University of Padua in didactic activity, in 2010 nomination as Expert in the field of Health Psychology and Clinical Psychology (M/PSI-08).

Teacher in post-graduate specialization course "Methodology of research in the discourses' field - M.A.D.I.T.". Coordinator and resource analysis in some researches commissioned by Department of General Psychology and Department of Applied Psychology in the field of health promotion and chronic disease with poor prognosis.

Co-author in international publications about esophageal cancer and evaluation of the effectiveness of psychological intervention. Coworker in didactic books in the field of Health Psychology and the concerning measurement theory. From 2007 participations in international and national scientific meetings as report author.

Member of Italian Society of Psycho-Oncology S.I.P.O.